Dear Summit Families,

Thank you to all who came out to support our students for our Summit’s Got Talent event on Friday. Our students are amazingly talented in endless and unique ways, and it was a joy to celebrate their expression of this on Friday evening. The arts are a vital part of a Summit whole-child education, and we are grateful for so many who support opportunities such as these for our students. A special thanks to parents Tracie Jernigan, Collins Zimmer, Holly Powers, Melanie Couch, Kelly Greene, Silverio and Isela Tepepa, Jeremy Alison, and Nick Jernigan, and community member Benjamin T. Warner for their leadership and support in making this wonderful event happen at Summit.

This week we head into our final two weeks of the 3rd academic quarter. These are important weeks for our students as they wrap up the previous seven weeks of learning. Thank you for your continued support and encouragement of your children as they strive for growth and excellence each day. On that note, March 25 is a scheduled Parent-Teacher Conference Day. We look forward to Conference Day as an opportunity for us to come together in partnership with you to discuss your child’s academic and character growth so far this year. Please let your child’s teachers know if you are interested in scheduling a conference.

Thank you for your continued support.

With gratitude,

Kurt
